TO THE HOLDERS OF THE 6 PER CENT, collateral gold notes of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, issued under and secured by that certain trust agreement, dated July 1, 1907, between the said Railway Company and the Central Trust Company of New York, as trustee:

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, desiring to exercise the right to redeem any of the said notes as provided therein and by the terms of the trust agreement above mentioned, hereby gives notice that it has elected to redeem and pay off all such notes, and that on the 1st day of July, 1909, there will be income and be due and payable upon each of said notes, at the office of the railway company in the city of New York (which for this purpose has been established at the office of Central Trust Company of New York, No. 54 Wall Street, New York, N. Y.) the principal thereof, with the premium of 2 per cent thereon and accrued interest to such date; and that from and after the said date of redemption, the said notes will cease.

The holder of each of said notes is hereby notified to present the same, with all coupons for interest thereon not due at said date of redemption, at the office of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, in New York, before the said 1st day of July, 1909, to receive the principal and interest thereon, and to be paid by the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, as trustee.

All unpaid coupons, which shall have matured on or prior to the said 1st day of July, 1909, continue to be payable, but interest thereon shall be due and payable upon each of said notes, at the office of the railway company in the city of New York (which for this purpose has been established at the office of Central Trust Company of New York, No. 54 Wall Street, New York, N. Y.) the principal thereof, with the premium of 2 per cent thereon and accrued interest to such date; and that from and after the said date of redemption, to-wit, the 1st day of July, 1909, interest on said notes will cease.

The holder of each of said notes is hereby notified to present the same, with all coupons for interest thereon not due at said date of redemption, at the office of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, in New York, before the said 1st day of July, 1909, to receive the principal and interest thereon, and to be paid by the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, as trustee.

All unpaid coupons, which shall have matured on or prior to the said 1st day of July, 1909, continue to be payable to the holders thereof severally and respectively, but without interest thereon.

THE CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILWAY COMPANY, By Geo. W. Stevens, President.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, desiring to exercise the right to redeem any of the said notes as provided therein and by the terms of the trust agreement above mentioned, hereby gives notice that it has elected to redeem and pay off all such notes, and that on the 1st day of July, 1909, there will be income and be due and payable upon each of said notes, at the office of the railway company in the city of New York (which for this purpose has been established at the office of Central Trust Company of New York, No. 54 Wall Street, New York, N. Y.) the principal thereof, with the premium of 2 per cent thereon and accrued interest to such date; and that from and after the said date of redemption, the said notes will cease.

The holder of each of said notes is hereby notified to present the same, with all coupons for interest thereon not due at said date of redemption, at the office of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, in New York, before the said 1st day of July, 1909, to receive the principal and interest thereon, and to be paid by the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, as trustee.

All unpaid coupons, which shall have matured on or prior to the said 1st day of July, 1909, continue to be payable to the holders thereof severally and respectively, but without interest thereon.
